The editorial fraternity of North Carolina deeply sympathize with editor Kingsbury of the Wilmington Messenger in the irreparable loss he has sustained by the death of his eldest daughter, Mrs. Shackford.

A MEMPHIS woman fell thirty feet down an elevator shaft, and lighting on her bustle, escaped unhurt, says an exchange. The bustle has now met and vanquished every danger, except an attack from a Billy goat.

The trial and acquittal of McDow for the brutal and cold-blooded murder of Capt. F. W. Dawson, of Charleston, S. C., is no less a surprise than an outrage upon common justice—a farce and a fraud, of the first water!

The total visible cotton supply for the world is 1,441,994 bales, of which 925,694 are American, against 1,406,680 and 999,980 bales, respectively last year. Receipts at all interior towns are 1,412 bales; receipts plantation 84, crop in sight, 6,835,753 bales.

COTTON cloth and pine straw fibre are products of handy and effective use to the farmers in fighting their arch enemy, the jute bagging trust, says the Messenger. Yes, and we have the raw material for the manufacture of both right here at home.

The Biblical Recorder, of Raleigh, has celebrated another birthday, and the beauty of it is the Recorder gets better every year. In our judgement there is not an abler paper of its kind in the South. The Baptists of the State should give the Recorder the hearty support it so richly deserves.

It goes without saying that before his inauguration Harrison was studying how to make his Administration live in history. He thought of the annexation of Canada and Cuba, but events have anticipated his plans, and his administration will live in hated memory as the age of reduction of wages and of suffering among the working classes.

MR. PERRIE LORILLARD, who has been in St. Louis for the past ten days, has returned to the Empire State. It is understood that he went out to the Missouri metropolis to confer with Leggett & Myers and Drummond & Co., the two leading plug tobacco manufacturers of the United States, and if possible come to some agreement with them whereby a plug tobacco trust might be formed and competition in the sale of this savory material for chewing defitely terminated. It is understood that Mr. Lorillard has returned without accomplishing his object, and that the two firms mentioned and Mr. Lorillard in New York are still free to cut and hack prices with the vigor displayed usually by the backwoods farmer of the Western cowboy in hacking and cutting the material itself.

Six rows of seven stars each were displayed in the blue's field in the corner of our national flag on the 4th at Washington, the day of all the year in which the flag may most appropriately spread itself. The point has been raised with respect to the arrangement, that no such symmetry will be possible again till we have forty-nine States in the Union, when the stars will stand in seven rows of seven. But from the way the Territories are filling up that may not be so long hence, especially if California and Texas consent to be carved in twain; Utah reforms her social habits, Arizona runs irrigating ditches through her broad acres of desert, and Oklahoma grows in the nurture and admonition of sound American citizenship as fast as she has grown in population during the last three months.

The Observer's Trade Issue Abroad and What the People Think of It.

Fayetteville's Enterprise.

Raleigh News and Observer.]

The presentation of a gold-headed cane to Mr. Z. W. Whitehad, editor of the FAYETTEVILLE OBSERVER, for getting out a special trade issue of the town shows that the people of Fayetteville appreciate enterprise, and the trade issue itself indicates that the gift is well merited.

The edition contains twenty-eight pages of five columns each, and its cost of issuance must have necessitated the outlay of a considerable amount of money. However great that cost may have been, however, there is no doubt that it will be returned at least fivefold.

Fayetteville and Cumberland county offer many inducements to capital and labor to immigrate there, and it is only necessary that these inducements should be made known to outsiders to cause them to do so. At least 5,000 copies of the trade issue ought to be circulated throughout the United States, and if this is done it is quite safe to say that the historic town will experience a growth unlike that ever before known in its history.

The edition contains a number of handsome cuts giving views of Fayetteville, the streets, buildings, parks, etc., together with a history of the town and its business. The advantages of Fayetteville as a place of residence, as a commercial centre, a truck farming centre and a winter resort are also graphically and truthfully presented.

There are something over $1,000,000 invested in cotton factories in Fayetteville and Cumberland county together, and it is safe to say that no less than $350,000 of this amount has been spent during the past twelve months. These factories are located within a radius of six to eight miles of the town and give constant employment to several hundred thrifty employees who spend the greater portion of their earnings in Fayetteville.

Fayetteville can and does boast of the largest Edge Tool Manufactory in the Southern States and the largest Dry Goods House South of Baltimore.

Notwithstanding the number of Cotton Mills now in successful operation in Cumberland county, there is sufficient water power, lying idle says Mr. McDuffie, our Civil Engineer, to turn every wheel and run every spindle in the New England States.

A careful investigation places the amount paid out to operatives of the various industries of Fayetteville at about $3,625 per week.

There is not one of the long list of manufacturing industries of Fayetteville but what pays all the way from 8 to 24 per cent. on the money invested.

There are a number of other towns in the State that would do well to follow Fayetteville's example in this matter.

"Has Done Fayetteville the Greatest Individual Service Ever Rendered Her."

Maj. W. A. Hearne in Wilmington Messenger.]

The FAYETTEVILLE OBSERVER comes as a thirty-two page, handsomely illustrated trade issue, containing one hundred and twenty-five advertisements, many of them quarter, half and whole pages, and twenty-five illustrations of the industries, improvements and resources of that growing town and live, prosperous, stirring community.

The edition is profuse with historical and descriptive matter of the old town and interesting region round about, and Mr. Whitehead has just done Fayetteville the greatest individual service ever rendered her. We congratulate this young and enterprising publisher upon the success of his unertaking, but we cannot decide whom to most compliment for energy and public spirit, the editor who has worked up this successful display, or the merchants and business men who responded to his effort with such liberality and unanimity. We are not merely pleased and gratified at this evidence of enterprise and outcome in Fayetteville, we are simply astounded.

Charleston and Wilmington in the trade editions of their city papers, with apparently much superior facilities and greater business resources have done no better than Fayetteville has in this edition of the OBSERVER.

"A Good Town, Good Editor and Good Paper."

Charlotte Daily Chronicle.]

Fayetteville knows how to appreciate a live editor. Brother Whitehead, editor of the FAYETTEVILLE OBSERVER, was presented with a gold-headed cane yesterday in recognition of his services to the city in getting out a great trade issue of the OBSERVER last Saturday.

Barring the fact that a cane, especially a gold-headed ebony one, is the most useless one a man can have, editor Whitehead has many reasons to feel proud.

"An Honor to the Town and a Monumt to the Editor."

Mainie L. Hatchett, in Orphan's Friend.]

The FAYETTEVILLE OBSERVER is out in a handsome thirty-two page, illustrated Trade Issue, which is an honor to the city and a monument to the enterprise and industry of Mr. Z. W. Whitehead, its talented and progressive young editor. With such a spirit among the business men of Fayetteville as has been exhibited in the mammoth sheet before us, the town must grow, and it would be well if some of her more aspiring neighbors would follow her example.

"Most Successful Effort in he History of the State."

High Point Enterprise.]

We have received the industrial issue of the FAYETTEVILLE OBSERVER and pronounce it the most successful effort of the kind in the history of N. C. Journalism. Fayetteville never does things by halves. Bro. Whitehead deserved his cain.

Congratulations All Round.

New Berne Journal.]

The FAYETTEVILLE OBSERVER of the 27th of June is a splendid trade issue of thirty-two pages. We congratulate Fayetteville on having such a paper, and the OBSERVER upon having such a town to write about.

"An Honor to Fayetteville and the Editor."

Harnett Courier.]

We have received the large mammoth Trade Issue of the FAYETTEVILLE OBSERVER. It is an honor to Fayetteville, the OBSERVER, and especially the editor, Mr. Z. W. Whitehead. Mr. Whitehead has left nothing undone to show up Fayetteville in its true light. Every advantage Fayetteville and Cumberland County has, is shown in this issue. The people of the Upper Cape Fear section should appreciate the efforts of the OBSERVER in trying to build up this section. Few men in North Carolina have the brains and progressiveness of Z. W. Whitehead.

"Sets Forth the Interests and Attractions of the Town."

Statesville Landmark.]

The FAYETTEVILLE OBSERVER of last week, issued a trade edition of 32 large pages. It was a complete setting forth of the business interests of the town and its point of attractiveness to immigrants and visitors, and was highly creditable to the enterprise and tact of Editor Whitehead, who was presented by the citizens with a gold-headed cane in recognition of the service which he had rendered the community.

"No Such Paper Ever Seen Here Before."

H. L. COOK, in Fayetteville Correspondence Clinton Caucasian.]

The industrial issue of the FAYETTEVILLE OBSERVER made its appearance last week. It is a 32 page edition, containing cuts of various buildings and streets, the history of the city and her enterprises and enterprising business men. It is a magnificent feat of journalism. No such paper was ever issued here before, and the editor says it is the largest paper ever issued in the State by one man. The able Whitehead deseserves warm congratulation.

"A Credit to Fayetteville and an Honor to the State."

Winston Dally.]

The industrial issue of the FAYETTEVILLE OBSERVER is on our table. It is a 32 page paper setting forth the advantages of Fayetteville and the Upper Cape Fear settlin. It makes a good showing for Fayetteville. It is not only a credit to Fayetteville, but also an honor to the State. Mr. Z. W. Whitehead, the editor, deserves much praise for his noble work. It will, doubtless, result in much good to the Cape Fear section and the whole of North Carolina.

"Done Fayetteville and Surrounding Country Much Credit."

Wilmington Star.]

Mr. Z. W. Whitehead, editor of the FAYETTEVILLE OBSERVER, has done himself credit and Fayetteville and the surrouding country much good by the publication of his well gotten up thirty-two page trade issue, showing the industries and resources of that section, and its advantages as a place to locate or invest capital.

"Ahead of Anything in North Carolina Journalism."

Concord Times.]

The FAYETTEVILLE OBSERVER'S special issue of 32 pages is ahead of anything in North Carolina journalism, except, probably, the like issue of the Wilmington Messenger. It is a big effort, and Bro. Whitehead has done himself and Fayetteville honor. The good such a sheet will result in to the town is absolutely incalculable. It is far reaching and continuous.

"Will Redound to the Profit of all Concerned."

Chatham Record.]

The enterprising editor of the FAYETTEVILLE OBSERVER published last week an illustrated trade issue, that was not only creditable to him but to the public spirit of the citizens of that good old town, and we hope it will redound to the profit of all concerned.

A Credit to Both.

Winston Sentinel.]

The FAYETTEVILLE OBSERVER is out in a magnificent illustrated 23-page industrial issue. It is a credit to Whitehead and to the town of Fayetteville.

Celluloid.

Inquirer: How is celluloid manufactured? Everybody has seen or heard of it but I am forced to come to you for information concerning its manufacture.

In a factory near Paris for the production of celluloid, the following process is gone through with: A roll of paper is slowly unwound and at the same time saturated with a mixture of five parts of sulphuric acid and two parts of nitric acid which falls upon the paper in fine spray. This changes the cellulose of the paper into gum cotton. The excess of the acid having been expelled by pressure, the paper is washed with plenty of water until all tracts of acid have been removed. It is then reduced to a pulp and passes on to the bleaching trough. Most of the water having been strained from it, the pulp is mixed with from 20 to 40 per cent. of its weight in camphor and the mixtures thoroughly triturated under mill stones. It is then colored with a second powder and mixing and grinding follows. The finely divided pulp is then spread out in thin layers on slabs and from twenty to twenty-five of these are placed in a hydraulic press separated from each other by thick blotting paper and are subjected to a pressure of 150 atmospheres until all traces of moisture are gone. The matter is then passed between rollers heated to between 140 to 150 degrees Fahrenheit whence it issues in the form of elastic sheets. The process is a tedious one as you see, but we are glad you asked the question. Suppose many of our readers will be interested in the answer.

Origin of the "Manner Born."

Reidsville Review.]

The Jonesboro Leader man, who seems to be something of a critic, says the Sanford Express is wrong in quoting the phrase, "to the manner born." Can we not interpose right here? "Manner born" is right. Any one who disbelieves the statement may be satisfied by reading the play of Hamlet, written by one William Shakspeare.

The Late Dr. W. T. Ennett.

Wilmington Review.]

It is with feelings of deep regret that we announce the death of Dr. W. T. Ennett. He died at his residence in this city, after a distressing and painful sickness of about two months.

Dr. Ennett was about 49 years of age. He was a native of Onslow county and was a student at Chapel Hill when the war broke out. So ardent was his devotion to the cause of the South and of his native State that he did not wait for permission from home to leave school but at once deserted the academic halls and repaired to Onslow where he joined a company which was then being formed, known afterwards as Redd's Company, E. Third North Carolina Infantry. Dr. Ennett became a lieutenant in this company and was with the regiment in its first service in the field and remained with it faithfully until the last days at Appomattox, when he was major of the regiment. At Appomattox he commanded the brigade (Cox's) to which the Third North Carolina was then attached. Gen. Cox commanding the division. It is said that this brigade made the last charge of the war, just before the surrender.

At the close of the war Dr. Ennett applied himself energetically to the study of medicine and graduated at the Medical College at Baltimore. He then located in what is now Pender county for the practice of his profession and married a sister of Capt. R. M. McIntyre, who with three children survives him. He enjoyed a lucrative practice in Pender for many years but his health having become impared he removed to this city, hoping to benefit by the change. This was about two months ago and shortly after his removal here the session of the State Medical Society fell due and as the President of that body, Dr. Ennett felt bound to attend. It was on his way there, while at Garysburg, that the disease overtook him and he returned to this city. Since that time he has been a great sufferer and for him death was surely a kindly release.

And how shall we speak of the dead in terms fitting and appropriate and at the same time expressive of one iota of the grief we feel at his loss! We knew him well and have known him well for a quarter of a century. He was honest, earnest, true, noble, steadfast and brave. He steadfastly pursued the right and would make no compromise with wrong. He was a true, humble professing christian and died, as he had lived, in full communion with the Episcopal Church. Duty was to him not so much a watchword as a principle; it shone forth in every act of his life—on the battle field, by the bedside of the sick and suffering, in all of his intercourse with his fellow men, at the fireside and at the altar.

God rest him! He is with us no more but he has crossed over the river and is resting to-day in Paradise. He is now where duty has been transformed into love, where there are no more wars or rumors of wars, no troubles, no sorrows, no sickness and no death.

GRISSOM INVESTIGATION.

Testimony of the Various Witnesses.

Raleigh News & Observer.]

The Board of Directors of the Insane Asylum resumed the investigation of the charges against Dr. Grissom yesterday morning.

Capt. Harris was sufficiently recovered to be present and was in attendance.

When the Board had been called to order Mr. Whitaker announced that Mr. Busbee had withdrawn from the prosecution and read letters written by him in which he informed him of his withdrawal, and which was published in the News and Observer of Sunday.

He then announced that Hon. A. M. Waddell, of Wilmington, had become associated with him in the prosecution and would appear from that time on that side. The other attorneys were all present.

The examination of witness Emanuel Jones, who was on the witness stand at the adjournment on Friday, was at once continued. He said he thought it was in February that Miss Burch ceased to be an attendant and became a patient. When she passed by the steward's room and he told the steward of what he had seen, he thought it was before she became a patient.

Col. Fuller then cross examined witness Jones. He asked if he did not on June 25th, 1889 state to Dr. Grissom, in the presence of Robert Grisson, that he had never seen Dr. Grissom and Mrs. Burch in the room together with the door locked? He answered no. Col. Fuller asked if he did not at the same time tell Dr. Grissom that he had not talked to or been talked to by anybody about Dr. Grissom. He answered no.

Mr. Whitaker asked if any other witnesses should be allowed to be present while a witness on either side was being examined. The chairman of the board stated it as his opinion that this was as the board understood the ruling made on the matter on the week before. After some discussion this was agreed upon and it was decided that all witnesses should retire from the room except Dr. Grissom, Dr. Rogers and Mr. Thompson.

MRS. PERKINSON EXAMINED.

Mrs. Lily B. Perkinson was then introduced upon the witness stand and was sworn. Mrs. Perkinson's husband was also with her. She had expressed a desire that her husband should remain with her and counsel for the prosecution agreed that he should be subpœnaed as a witness in order that her request could be complied with. Col. Fuller for the respondent stated that they desired to subpœna Mr. Perkinson on the subpœna was at once issued.

Mr. Smith moved that an exception be made in this instance and that Mr. Perkinson be allowed to remain in the room with his wife. After a discussion the motion failed to carry and Mr. Perkinson retired.

Mr. Whitaker then examined Mrs. Perkinson. She said her husband was Mr. Kemp B. Perkinson. He had been an attendant at the asylum but left about the first of February, 1887. Mrs. Perkinson said she went to see Dr. Grissom to ask him to give her husband work again about the last of February or the first of March. Her husband had not been discharged but had got mad and quit. She stated that she and her children were dependent upon her husband and Dr. Grissom promised her to give him work. When she started to leave he took her by the hand and kissed her. She said nothing to him then thinking he did it in sympathy for her. When she went home she told her husband what had occurred. Dr. Grissom sent for Mr. Perkinson and told him he would give him work which he did and Mr. Perkinson went back to work.

Mr. Whitaker asked—Do you remember when there was trouble at the penitentiary and the Governor's Guard was ordered out? She said yes, that she came up to the asylum that evening to ask Dr. Grissom to let her husband come home that night as she was afraid to remain by her self with nobody but the children. She said Dr. Grissom came up to her and tried to kiss her again but she wouldn't permit it. She told him she thought he did it before through sympathy for her. He replied that he did.

Mr. Whitaker asked: Was Dr. Grissom at your house when one of your children were sick? She said yes, that she came up to the asylum after medicine for her child. She was in Mrs. Grissom's room and Dr. Grissom sent a servant to tell her that he would leave the medicine in his office and that she could go by there and get it as he was going out to ride. He soon sent the servant back again to tell her to come down to his office as he wanted to tell her how to give the medicine to the child. She went and found him standing in the office. He spoke to her and started to take hold of her hand. She made objection and he said, "hush, don't speak so loud.', He then gave her the medicine and she went home. This was all in 1887. Some time in the summer of 1887, he child was very sick. She sent to Dr. Grissom and he sent her a bottle of blackberry wine to give the child and sent her word to let him know if it didn't do her any good. She went back the next day and told him the child was no better and he said he would go to her house and see it. She did not object and he went. When he entered he said a few words about the child and then got up and came to her and put his hand upon her breast and tried to kiss her. (Here the witness began crying.) She would not permit him to do it and told him she respected herself as a lady and wanted him to respect her as a lady. She told him to sit down and behave himself. She was sitting at the window with the child in her lap. He went over and sat down upon the bed and asked her to put the child down and come to him. She threatened to call and he offered to pay her not to tell what had happened. She told him that she would certainly tell it. He asked her if she would not come up to the asylum some time and have a talk with him in the private parlor. He told her that if she would yield to him she would never want anything. He told her there and at other times that he thought she was one of the prettiest women he ever saw and flattered her. She said her husband was not discharged when he left the first time but he was the last time. This had occurred in the summer of 1887 and he was discharged the last of January, 1888. She said she informed her husband of what occurred all along. She didn't tell anybody else except one of her married sisters who she told something about it. She

Twenty Pieces of Bone.

My little niece, left me by her mother, had one of the worst cases of white swelling I ever saw. More than twenty pieces of bone came out of her leg, one piece being about the size of the small end of a walking cane, and nearly three inches long. The hole left by taking these pieces out was as large as a good sized walnut. She was not able to walk a step for eight months, and was afterwards compelled to use cruthes for nearly a year. The doctors said there was no cure, and advised amputation of the limb. This I would not consent to, but put her to taking Swift's Specific (S. S. S.), leaving off all other treatment. It has cured her sound and well, and I shall never grow weary of speaking in its praise.

The World Ought to Know It.

The world ought to know what S. S. S. has done for me in the cure of a malignant Cancer, which was so bad as to be considered in curable by the physicians in Chicago, where I went to be treated. The hospital surgeons gave me up, saying they could do nothing for me. One of my neighbors sent me a copy of an advertisement cut from a paper in regard to Swift's Specific, and I began taking it. I got relief from the first few doses; the poison was gradually forced out of my system, and I was soon cured sound and well. It is now ten months since I quit taking S. S. THURSDAY.....JULY 11, 1889.

Here is to the health of North Carolina Soldier Boys in Camp at Wrightsville! May your sojourn be one of great pleasure and recuperation, and your recollections of Camp Latimer none but the most pleasant! and that an Alwise Providence will direct your footsteps and guard your destinies.

THE Persian Minister says he will shake the dust of America from the soles of his boots about the middle of July and return to his own fair native land, because the American press has been saying some pungent things about the Minister and his sovereign.

Davidson Commencement, June 18, 19, 20.

Reported for the Observer.]

The exercises of Sunday preceding Commencement are especially pleasant. The sermon to the graduating class by Dr. N. W. Edmunds, of Sumter, S. C., was peculiarly appropriate to the occasion. "Individual Responsibility" was his theme. Every man, however insignificant, exerts an influence for good or for evil, and the extent of his influence is measured by his position, and by his attainments. In closing, the Doctor said: "Young Gentlemen of the Graduating Class, I would be willing that every thought that I have presented might be forgotten, if I could burn into your minds and hearts the fact that your lives without Jesus Christ will be failures; with Him they will be successes."

Dr. Peyton Hoge, of Wilmington, addressed the Young Men's Christian Association at night and proved the wisdom of Moses' chice in preferring Christ to the riches and honors of Egypt.

The next thing on the programme is the meeting of the Literary Soieties Tuesday night. A. C. McIntosh, Valedictorian of '81, had been chosen to address the Philanthropic Society, and taught us clearly the importance of "Self Reliance." Our Emenean brethren had chosen Samuel Scott, of Georgia, as their orator, but as both societies convene at the same hour, the writer did not have the pleasure of hearing this worthy son of Davidson.

The Alumni Association meet in the evening and received into their ranks the graduating class. But the most exciting hour of Commencement is Wednesday night when the six Junior "Reps" held their contest for Orators' Medal. The speeches were of excellent composition and well delivered, and though the race was a close and heated one, R. E. C. Lawson was the successful orator. "The Battle of Cannae" was his subject. Mr. Lawson is the largest man in college, has his share of brains and has much of the oratorical fire about him.

Thursday is Commencement proper and is devoted to the exercises of the graduating class.

The large Commencement Hall was filled to overflowing, when W. P. Nesbett, of Piedmont, S. C., in a few graceful and well chosen words assured the audience of their welcome into our midst and discussed in a clear and forcible style "The Plurality of Worlds."

Trusts were discussed by J. S. Brown, of Bear Poplar, N. C., under the title "A New Disturbance."

J. W. Reid, of Guilford, opposed the colonization of the negro and proposed to meet the "Negro Problem" by higher education.

The horrors of "The Black Hale of Calcutta" were told by J. K. Smith, of Coneyrs, Ga.

The "Philosophy of History" was discussed by Mr. Goldberg, of Charlotte.

Rev. J. B. Shearer, D. D., LL.D., was then inaugurated as President and Professor of Moral Philosophy and also of Biblical Instruction; C. R. Harding, Ph. D., was inaugurated as Professor of German and Greek. Both of these Professors were elected one year ago. Hon. A. Lenzar, late Speaker of the House of Representatives, charged the new President to be faithful to the great trust entrusted to his care.

In his inaugural address the Doctor's words showed that he realized the responsibility resting on his shoulders. He emphasized the necessity not only of intellectual development, but also the importance of training and developing the physical, social and spiritual sides of our nature. He desired to see the Young Men's Christian Association hall and gymnasium erected at once, and proposed to the students that if they would raise $2,500 by January 1st, that he would give them the other $500. The Doctor's liberality in all good causes knows no bounds.

The presentation of prizes followed the inaugural, and were presented as follows:

PHI. SOCIETY.

Debater—W. V. Goldberg, Charlotte.
Essayist—J. S. Brown, Bear Poplar.
Declaimer—R. Lee McNair, Asheville.

EU. SOCIETY.

Debater—J. K. Smith, Conyers, Ga.
Essayist—W. F. Hollingsworth, Atlanta.
Declaimer—B. F. Townsend, Union, S. C.
Orator, given by both Societies—R. E. C. Lawson, Troutman's, N. C.

This is the first year that the Bible has been taught as a text book; and for the highest grade in the Senior Bible Class a medal has been offered by the family of the late Rev. Wm. Banks, long a Trustee of the College. This medal is known as "Wm. Banks Biblical Medal," and was presented by the President to J. A. McArthur, Jr., Fayetteville, N. C.

The following honorary degrees were conferred:

LL.D.

Chas. W. Dabney, President University Tennessee.

D. D.

W. H. Dodge, Jacksonville, Fla.; J. Y. Fair, Richmond, Va.; W. S. Lacy, Norfolk, Virginia.

A. M.

Pof. Bocock, Hampden, Sidney.

GRADUATES, WITH THE DEGREE OF A. B.

William Eugene Alexander, Harrisburg, N. C.; James Stephen Brown, Bear Poplar, N. C.; Joseph Alexander McArthur, Fayetteville, N. C.; Lynford Lardner Moore, Huntersville, N. C.; Willie Preston Nesbitt, Piedmont, S. C.; John William Reid, Griffith's, N. C.; Jasper Keith Smith, Conyers, Ga.; Robert Rockwell Stevenson, Statesville, N. C.; Robet Stewart Thompson, Bennettsville, S. C.

WITH THE DEGREE OF P. S.

William Victor Goldberg, Charlotte, N. C.

WITH THE DEGREE OF A. M.

Willie Preston Nesbitt, Piedmont, S. C. "The Perils of Unrestricted Immigration" was then discussed by R. R. Steven son, of Statesville, and as Valedictorian he spoke the sad words of farewell to friends and class-mates. This closed the exercises proper, but the remaining hours are interesting to those who delight to promenade and chat, and especially interesting are the last few moments to those who are speculating on "rags."

The following are the donors and recipients:

Chief, W. P. Nesbitt, Miss Ruth Price, (niece of Dr. Sheares).
J. L. Lineberger, Miss Ida Clarkson.
A. M. Sample, Miss Eunice McDowell.
A. J. Wittson, Miss Bessie Weddington.
J. P. Wilson, Miss Birdie Burwell.
J. E. Young, Miss Addie Moore.
W. L. Walker, Miss Grace Alexander.

Thus closed a Commencement long to be remembered. "SENIOR."

Confederate Soldiers' Home.

Reported for the Observer.]

LILLINGTON, N. C., July 4, 1889.

At a meeting of the ex-Confederate Soldier of Harnett, convened by the call of the President of the State Veteran's Association, on the 4th of July at Lillington, the Association was organized by electing Col. Kenneth Murchison as President and J. A. Green and Dr. W. M. McNeill as Secretaries, and Sheriff Colen McArtan as Treasurer.

After the organization was perfected the following resolutions were offered by D. H. McLean, Esq., who delivered an address and moved their adoption, which motion was carried, to-wit:

We, the undersigned, who are ex-Confederate Soldiers of Harnett County, do hereby enroll ourselves as members of the Harnett County Veteran Association, and do hereby pledge ourselves to do all in our power to further the establishment at some suitable point in the State, of a Soldiers' Home, for those of our former comrades who are now, or may hereafter become incapable of providing for themselves a comfortable livelihood.

We commend this noble enterprise to the generous liberality of our whole people, and ask them not to forget the claims of those gallant and heroic men who imperilled their lives for North Carolina when in danger. It should never be said that a North Carolina Soldier had closed his eyes in death within the wards of a County Poor House, but should have a home provided where a grateful country can minister to his necessities and thereby repay in part that debt of imperishable honor and gratitude which is his due.

All the old soldiers present signed the above paper, and the Secretaries were instructed to keep the roll open until the next meeting of the Association, so that every soldier in the county should have an opportunity of becoming a member.

On motion the following Committees were appointed to solicit contributions to the Soldiers' Home:

Averasboro Township—Dr. —— Harper, W. A. Colville, Mrs. Jas. A. Taylor and Mrs. H. C. Avera.

Anderson's Creek—John McArtan, J. C. McCorquedale, Mrs. H. D. McCormick and Miss Flora Campbell.

Black River—S. G. Collins, J. C. Williams, Mrs. Young Utley and Mrs. A. W. Gregory.

Buckhorn—B. F. Harrington, Dr. R. T. Spence, Mrs. M. V. Prince, Mrs. Norman Johnson.

Barbecue—J. K. P. Harrington, John Oliver, Mrs. John Maxwell, Mrs. Dr. McCormick.

Hector's Creek—A. N. Bradley, Y. D. Sence, Mrs. M. J. Senter, Miss Ella F. Green.

Grove—J. A. Stewart, J. N. Gregory, Mrs. Elmore Stewart, Mrs. Devereux Turlington.

Lillington—Dr. J. F. Rogers, K. F. McNeill, Mrs. C. McArtan, Mrs. D. H. McLean.

Neill's Creek—Dr. W. M. McNeill, Josiah Jackson, Mrs. Lenora McKay, Miss Allie Crowder.

It having been announced that the ladies of the county desired to give a public dinner to the old soldiers some time and place most convenient to the members of the Association, it was agreed that the Association adjourn until the first Thursday in September, to meet at the Court House at Lillington. Some objection was made to Lillington as the place for the dinner, on account of the fact that liquor is sold there. Mr. B. Rich, who himself is an old soldier, came forward and pledged that no liquor should be on sale, or otherwise dispensed on that day, whereupon all objection was withdrawn.

The following resolution was then passed: That the proceedings of this meeting be sent to the FAYETTEVILLE OBSERVE and Harnett Courier with a request that they be published. K. MURCHISON, Pres't.

J. A. GREEN, A. M. MCNEILL, } Secretaries.

Confederate Soldiers' Home.

Reported for the Observer.]

In pursuance to the call made by Julian S. Carr, Esq., a number of ex-Confederate Soldiers of Bladen county, assembled in the court house in Elizabethtown on this the 4th day of July, 1889. The meeting was called to order by Col. C. T. Davis, who requested Col. J. A. McDowell to act as Chairman and A. M. McNeill to act as Secretary.

After the temporary organization, C. C. Lyon, Esq., was called upon and made a short, but telling speech in favor of the Soldiers' Home.

The following officers were elected for one year, viz: J. A. McDowell, President; C. T. Davis, Vice-President; A. M. McNeill, Secretary; G. F. Melvin, Treasurer.

The following committee on By-Laws was elected, viz: I. H. Smith, S. F. Dickson, Haynes Edwards, J. D. Currie, K. J. Braddy, T. F. Bridgen, J. S. Melvin, J. C. Layton. T. M. Smith, D. M. Sutton, J. F. Croom. E. N. Robinson, John Monroe, M. N. Tatom.

On motion it was ordered that the Secretary notify said committee to meet at the Court House in Elizabethtown on Wednesday the 31st day of July inst., and report to the next meeting of this Association, which meets at the Court House in Elizabethtown on Monday August 5, 1889.

Those present enrolled their names and pledged themselves to do all in their power to aid in building a Confederate Soldiers' Home.

It is resolved that all ex-Confederate soldiers now residing in Bladen county are hereby requested to attend the next meeting of this Association.

Resolved. That the proceedings of this meeting be sent the FAYETTEVILLE OBSERVER for publication, and that the Wilmington Star and Messenger will please copy.

JOHN A. MCDOWELL, Pres't.
A. M. MCNEILL, Secretary.

10th WEEKLY WEATHER CROP BULLETIN.

CENTRAL OFFICE, RALEIGH, N. C.

The reports of correspondents of the Weekly Crop Bulletin, show that all crops have been injured by the excessive rains. In the Roanoke valley cotton and corn are said to have been almost entirely destroyed. All lowland crops have been seriously injured. Wheat and oats which had not been garnered have been very seriously damaged; the wheat sprouting in the shock. Reports from a number of localities state that tobacco has been "drowned out." Fruit is rotting in many places. The general outlook is very discouraging. Reports from seventeen stations give an average weekly rain-fall of 4.44 inches. The normal weekly rain fall for the month of July for the State, as determined from observations taken at a number of Signal Service stations (from four to thirteen years) in this State and adjoining States of Virginia and Tennessee, is 1.27 inches, giving a weekly excess of 3.17 inches. Freshets have occurred in many places, flooding bottom lands and washing away bridges. The week has been very unfavorable to farm work and all crops are getting grassy, the land being too wet for plowing.

REMARKS OF SPECIAL CORRESPONDENTS.

EASTERN DISTRICT. Tarboro, Edgecombe county—"The past week has been disastrous to all crops. The damage to cotton and corn by excessive rains and freshets cannot now be told. Since June 21st there has not been a day without rain." Pender—"It has rained every day for the past week and the farmers have not been able to do any work. Crops getting very grassy." Craven—"It has rained every day for nineteen days. Everything is drowned, or nearly so. Halifax—"It has rained every day for the past week. River low grounds flooded. Crops grassy; too much rain to be able to clean them." Perquimans—"Our farmers have not been able to plow for about fourteen days. Spring oats are about lost, many of them have been cut for over ten days and are still on the ground." Pasquotank—"Rain, rain, excess of rain, injuring all growing crops. Cotton running up too rapidly. Six days rain in the last seven."

CENTRAL DISTRICT. Greensboro, Guilford county—"Corn generally clean and the rain has pushed it wonderfully. Wheat badly damaged in the shock, also oats. But little housed." Davidson—"Still cloudy damp and rainy. Oats very much damaged. Early peaches all rotten. Crops of all kinds very grassy and the land too wet to cultivate." Rockingham—"Wheat damaged in the shock. Sunshine much needed. Crops very grassy. Forsythe—"Too much rain. Unfavorable for all crops. Some wheat out yet and badly damaged. Corn and tobacco getting grassy. Oats cannot be harvested. Fruit rotting." Alamance—"For the last seven days it has rained every day. The ground is thoroughly soaked. About three-fourths of the wheat crop in the field and it is badly damaged. Irish potatoes rotting. Tobacco on high lands has grown very fast, but on low lands is drowned." Vance—"Extremely wet weather. Complaint of tobacco drowning." Warren—"Rainfall for past week very heavy. Corn and cotton on bottom lands very much damaged. Oats badly damaged. Tobacco not seriously injured, looking well." Granville "We have had floods of rain. The wheat and oat crops have been seriously injured. Forward tobacco much damaged. Wake—"The heavy rains have caused all crops to get grassy. Oat crop about lost by rain." Johnston—"Too much rain. Sunshine needed. Crops generally are in the grass. Heaviest rain ever known in this section last night (July 5th). Several mill ponds are washed out. Low ground corn entire loss. Water is highest ever known in Buffalo Creek. Harnett—"We have had no sunshine since June 27th and rain more or less every day and night. Our sandy county is washed terribly. Crops although looking well are getting very grassy. Sunshine much needed. Moore "There has been an abundance of rain since last report. Corn and cotton drowned out and land badly washed. Nearly all farming work suspended. Most of the wheat housed. All that was in the field has been either washed away or spoiled. Several bridges and mill dams washed out." Union—"Cotton and vines, such as water-melons, pumpkins, squashes, and beans, are injuriously affected by the heavy rains and continued cloudy weather. Corn is doing well where the chinch bugs have not too badly damaged it." Richmond—"All crops growing nicely. Rain every day this week. Some wheat reported sprouting in the fields since cutting."

WESTERN DISTRICT. Catawba, Catawba county—"The rainfall in some localities has been very heavy. A large part of the wheat is still in the field. Some complaint of sprouting but do not think the injury is great." Lincoln—"Although we have had abundance of rain last week no serious damage has been done. Wheat that was not housed before the wet weather is somewhat damaged." Mecklenburg—"A little too much rain for the last seven days. Good deal of corn destroyed on the creeks. Too wet for plowing. Crops getting grassy." Gaston—"There has been rain for five days. A large percentage of the wheat and oats not housed is badly damaged. Wheat growing in shock and grass in abundance everywhere. Little work has been done during the past two weeks. Early upland corn, gardens, and fruit fine." McDowell—"Almost too much rain for all crops. Fruit is fine and all crops about the average. Bat Cave Henderson county—"There has been a great deal of rainfall in nearly every section of the county. Too wet to plow. The farmers are a little uneasy for fear their rye and wheat will sprout in the shock on account of the wet weather."

The trustees are having some needed improvements made on the High School building.

The military company received their new uniforms last Saturday, and they fit well and are beautiful. The company leaves for the encampment to-d y, and if their full number (49) could go, no company would make a finer appearance. Many, however, will have to remain on account of their crops, &c., being behind in work on account of so much rain.

The Y. M. C. A. recently organized temporarily is doing some zealous work, and promises to be a power for good in this part of the country.

A boarding house for the accommodation of young ladies for the school is now under favorable consideration and will doubtless be opened in time for the fall session.

The Graded School.

Written for the Observer.]

When this School was established the people of the Town being united in its support subscribed a sufficient amount to employ a full corps of Teachers. From year to year, notwithstanding the acknowledged great benefit the School has been to the town, its support has been diminished, and the Trustees have been forced to reduce the number of Teachers and to employ younger and cheaper ones, to the injury of the School. This state of affairs has come from causes partly inevitable to all Graded Schools, resulting in the opening of Private Schools; but mainly to the fact that so many parents have striven to get their children through the School with full benefit of the higher grades, which are above the Free School limit, without paying adequately (or in some cases anything even) to its support. The School Fund yields about one-third only of the money required to carry on the School.

Now, it is agreed by all that the School must be kept up. To do it, we must have a good subscription for $2,000. Who, then, must pay this? Most certainly it will have to be done by those who are to be benefitted by it, and they may just as well make up their minds at once that the School can not be maintained otherwise, and pay sufficient for the purpose. The Trustees will either have to devise a system by which they will be forced to pay Tuition, or else let the School dwindle into insignificance.

Monday Night's Meeting in the Tabernacle.

The meeting in the Tabernacle Monday night was a grand success, though the crowd was not so large. Judge MacRae's speech was elegant and heartily applauded and well received, while Col. Green's effort was simply splendid and frequently greeted with applause. Dr. Jas. A. Hodges read some letters from Ex-President Davis, all of which were well received. The meeting was presided over by Dr. T. D. Haigh, who acquitted himself in such a way as to win the highest incominums for his gallant deportment. The evening was indeed a most pleasant one and created no little enthusiasm among our people for the grand celebration here in November next, when we expect to see North and South Carolina and Virginia all in Fayetteville and everybody hurrahing at one time. Judge MacRae's address and also Col. Green's, if we can get it, will be published in the next issue of the OBSERVER.

ALL ABOARD FOR WRIGHTSVILLE!

The Fayetteville Independent Light Infantry Departs for Camp Latimer, at Wrightsville.

The Fayetteville Independent Light Infantry, under command of Maj. W. F. Campbell and Capts. Jno. B. Broadfoot, Jno. C. Vann and J. C. Huske, Jr., boarded the special train at the C. F. & Y. V. depot here Tuesday for Camp Latimer, at Wrightsville, bouyant with the brightest anticipations of a ten days' sojourn at this popular resort. The Company was in fine trim and "the boys" in high spirits over their contemplated pleasures around the camp-fires of soldies life and the varied attractions at the beach, surf-bathing, etc., etc. Including "rank and file" there were about 34 men in line, with others to follow to-day and to-morrow, each of whom carry with them the hearty good wishes of our people for a joyous trip and a realization of all their brightest anticipations.

Those who left Tuesday, were:

Maj. W. F. Campbell, Capts. Jno. B. Broadfoot, Jno. C. Vann, J. C. Huske, Jr.; Chaplain Rev. J. C. Huske, D. D., and Sergeon, Dr. W. C. McDuffie; Sergeants E. L. Pemberton and A. M. Campbell, Jr.; Corpls. T. T. McGilvary and W. C. McDuffie, Jr. Privates, Samuel Widdifield, Joe B. Underwood, Jr., J. H. Culbreth, I. P. Overbaugh, R. L. Holland, Geo. Weightman, C. E. Pearce, K. Huske, Thos. Whitted, W. M. Glover, W. B. Alexander, O. B. Weightman, Tom Moore, G. A. O'Hanlon, Jno. Thomson, Jas. Hollingsworth, H. E. Fisher, Frank Thornton, Jr., J. W. Moore, Henry Pemberton, J. H. Robinson, Jr., Jno. K Strange, A. J Pemberton, R. G. Haigh, Leighton Huske, Alexander Campbell, Eugene Gorham.

Judge-Advocate-Gen. Thos. H. Sutton, Lieut-Col. W. S. Cook, of the 2nd Regiment and Dr. J. A. Hodges, Surgeon of the 2nd Regiment, went down with the Company.

Competitive Drill.

The Competitive Drill of the F. I. L. I. held in the Armony last Friday night was largely attended by the citizens of the city and highly enjoyed by the spectators of both sexes. The first prize, a purse of $15.00, was won by Mr. W. C. McDuffie, Jr.; the second prize, a purse of $10.00, by Mr. Leighton Huske, while the third prize was for the best drilled officer and awarded Capt. Jno. C. Vann. The presentation of the prizes fell upon the mantle of Mr. John G. Shaw's shoulders, who acquitted himself admirably and proved beyond doubt that the task had fallen into worthy and competent hands. His effort fairly bristled with patriotic sayings for which he was frequently and heartily applauded. The "freeze out" feature of the drill was a merry-making feature and proved a source of unending amusement for "the boys" and spectators alike, Mr. T. T. McGilvary coming out as the successful knight.

Election Deferred.

The Trustees of the Fayetteville Graded School met according to announcement last Monday, but after consultation, resolved to defer the election of a superintendent till next Monday. In the meantime it behooves everybody to put their shoulders to the wheel for the maintainance and support of the white Graded School of Fayetteville. The value of education cannot be measured or weighed by dollars and cents, and we appeal to the citizens of Fayetteville to maintain in the future the reputation they have enjoyed in the past for their love and admiration for education and culture of the blue-eyed children of this favored metropolis of the Upper Cape Fear. This we confidently believe they will do and without hesitation at the proper time.

Sunday School Picnic.

The joint Committee of the various Sunday Schools in the city have decided to hold a grand County picnic at the Pearson Tabernacle in this city August 7th. All the Sunday Schools of the county are cordially invited to be present and take part in this "Union Dinner." It is hoped and expected that there will be no less than 3,000 children and teachers present. Several distinguished speakers will be present and make brief addresses on the occasion.

The Committee of arrangements consists of Messrs. Geo. P. McNeill, J. M. Lamb and J. T. Winburn, who will look after things in detail, and the public may justly expect a royal time on the 7th.

Practically Suspended.

News has been received at headquarters here that the recent heavy rains and high water in the streams have compelled almost an entire suspension of the work on the Wilmington extension of the Cape Fear & Yadkin Valley Railway. The roadbed has been graded about all the way between here and Wilmington, but in many places bad washouts have occurred, and work on the trestles at Moore Creek and other places has been suspended on account of the high water. Work will be resumed, however, as soon as the circumstances will permit.

The County Commissioners met on the 1st. inst and held an adjourned meeting on the 8th.

Minutes of the last meeting read and approved.

On motion of W. J. Buie it was ordered that the clerk issue notice to all officers in arrears with the county to make statement before November term Superior Court, otherwise suit will be instituted against them.

It was further ordered that Col. Wm. Alderman be instructed to repair lower bridge on Rockfish, not to cost exceeding $25.00.

The petition from the citizens of Black River and Flea Hill townships asking a reconsideration of a former action of the Board for the establishment of a public road from Wade to New Bridge was on motion dismissed.

After auditiug bills to the amount of about three hundred and fifty dollars the Board adjourned to meet on the 8th of July to revise the tax lists of the various townships.

On the 8th inst. the Board met promptly and made necessary changes, &c.

It was further reported that the Treasurer be authorized to receive cupons Nos. 135, 135, 74, dated June 1878, from Maj. Wm. Huske.

Death of Capt. Evans in Birmingham, Ala.

The Birmingham Daily Chronicle of June 6th, has reached us, containing an account of the death of Capt. Evans in that place. The Chronicle says:

"Last night Captain Thomas A. E. Evans died at his home on Twenty-fourth street, surrounded by the kindred and friends who loved him most. He was a man who made friends and who had friends.

Captain Evans was a man of fine family connections and was an educated, cultured, christian gentleman who had influence because he deserved it and character because he made it. His life was a quiet, dignified, purposeful one, useful and well rounded.

He was a civil engineer and served with distinction in that department of the Confederate service. He was one of the engineers who directed the strengthening of the defenses at Fort Sumter and Charleston harbor after it was taken by the Confederates. Since the war he has pursued his profession with success and when he took sick was in the employ of the Georgia Pacific railway.

Captain Evans was one of those men who do right because it is right and his life directed by that idea has been singularly pure and upright. His is a life that may well be used to point a moral, because there was not through the many years of it, one single stain to reproach him at death.

He leaves a wife and two little children here and a married daughter in Georgia. He was the brother of City Treasurer Evans, and helped direct his education and was also the brother of Mrs. J. B. Donelson."

Mr. Evans was a graduate of the State University at Chapel Hill and for a number of years a resident of Fayetteville, where he enjoyed the warm friendship of a wide circle of admirers. At one time he was engaged in the survey of the C. F. & Y. V. R. R. and leaves many friends in this community to mourn his death.

MARRIED.

DYE—EVANS—Mr. J. STARR DYE, formerly of this city, now of Baltimore, was married to Miss BESSIE EVANS, of the latter city, Wednesday, July 3rd. The bride and groom arrived here last week to spend a few weeks with the relatives of Mr. Dye. The bride is a charming young lady, and the many friends of the groom here wish them an abundance of happiness, in which the OBSERVER joins.

BARRETT—HOCKADAY—In the parlors of the Exchange Hotel, at nine o'clock yesterday morning, Miss CARRIE G. HOCKADAY, of Fayetteville, N. C., was united in marriage to HERMAN E. BARRETT, of Atlanta. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. J. M. Rose, pastor of the Washington Street, Presbyterian Church, and the marriage was a quiet one, only a few friends and the guests of the hotel being present. The bride is a sister of J. B. Hockaday, a route agent of the Southern Express Company, whose headquarts are in this city. She has been staying at the Exchange with her brother. Mr. Barrett is connected with the Southern Express Company. The bride and groom left on the morning train for Columbia and other places on a bridal tour. Although comparatively strangers they received the congratulations and good wishes of many Greenvillians.—Greenville (S. C.) Daily News, June 6th.

DIED.

DAVIS—At her home in Jonesboro, N. C., on the 21st of June, after a brief illnes, Mrs. MARY EMMA, wife of Neill Davis, in the 28th year of her age.

The deceased early in life consecrated herself to God and connected herself with the M. E. Church, and throughout her short life she had followed in the footsteps of her meek and lowly Master, performing in a christian manner every duty encumbent upon her as mother and wife. In her disposition she was kind and gentle, her impulses were noble and true, and her ways such as becometh the upright of heart. She leaves four little children and a devoted husband to mourn their loss, but in the hour of their deepest affliction they can rest upon the promise of God, That I will not leave thee nor forsake thee, and that not a sparrow falleth to the ground without his notice.

IN MEMORIAM.

Died, at his home on Haymount, June 30, 1889, JOSHUA S. HALL, in his 25th year.

The death of Mr. Hall, in the prime of life, but recently married, the only son of his mother, and she a widow, brings us face to face with the mysteries of Providence. Why should he be taken? There comes no answer. "God moves in a mysterious way." "He giveth not account of any of His matters."

"What I do thou knowest not now, but thou shalt know hereafter." Is not this a principle of general as well as special application? Happy they whose faith falters not!

"God's plans like lilies pure and white unfold. We must not tear the close-shut leaves apart, Time will reveal the calyxes of gold."

Mr. Hall was born and reared in this city, being a son of the late John H. Hall, in former years, prominent as a citizen and in business circles.

The father dying while the son was yet a child, his training and education fell on the mother. The character of her work revealed itself in the man. Possessing natural gifts above the average, he showed in manhood a positiveness of character, a self-control, a ripeness of judgment and a cultivation of mind and heart worthy of all praise.

Mr. Hall was a member of the Hay Street M. E. Church, South. Nearly two years ago he gave his heart to God. This was a full surrender, giving up everything he thought inconsistent with his profession of discipleship. His life was exemplary and his christian character shone with growing lustre to the end.

His sickness was of such a nature as to cause alarm from the beginning. Though having the attention and medical skill of an eminent physician and the most careful nursing, a constitution naturally frail made feeble resistance to disease, and in less than two weeks he died.

During his illness he evidenced a strength of faith, a resignation of will, and an assurance of hope, rarely seen save in those of matured christian experience.

His words of affection, of cheer and wise counsel to those he so tenderly loved, are as ointment poured forth, soothing and leaving a long perfume. May He who feeds the ravens and marks the fall of a sparrow, comfort the mother in her age and prove the widow's God and Father.

"Behind the dim unknown,
Standeth God within the shadow,

thought of telling Dr. Haywood, chairman of the Board, but thought he would not believe her. The reason was that she thought he would not believe just herself and husband and she decided to wait for an opportunity to report it.

TESTIMONY OF MISS ELLA EDWARDS.

Miss Ella N. Edwards was then sworn and examined by Mr. Whitaker. She said her name was Ella N. Edwards and she lived in Chatham county. Her father was Dr. W. S. Edwards, who lived in Chatham county. She lived with her father. She was employed as ward attendant in the asylum the 4th of November, 1886, and was here till 19th of March, 1888. When she came here as attendant he told her that the patients were like wild cats and told her to treat them as she pleased, but not to let anybody know it. She had charge of the first ward awhile, then the second, and then the first again. "Did you know Mrs Nancy Flood?" I did, she was one of my patients. She was about forty years old. She was an excitable patient and was hard to control. On one occasion I propped her in the door. Dr. Grissom came in and came up and she asked him what time it was and he told her to step back. She asked him again and he pushed her back and told her he would knock her down if she didn't stand off. She came and took hold of his watch and he slapped her and pulled her hair. It was in 1887, "Did you know Miss Mary Foy?" Yes. she was one of my patients in the first ward. She was about thirty years old. She always behaved very nicely. The supertendent came in one day and told her good morning. She did not speak and he told her he was superintendent of the institution and she would have to speak. He sent out and got a dipper of water and threw it in her face. She thereupon became raving and Dr. Grissom went out laughing.

Did you know Mrs. Whaley and Mrs. Overman? I did. Mrs. Whaley was a very violent patient but Mrs. Overman was not. They got into a fight one day and I locked them in separate rooms. I went and told Dr. Grissom. He came up and put both of them in a strong room together and told them to fight as long as they wanted to. He looked at them and laughed. He told me to let them out in a little while but not to report it. They bruished each other very much in the fight.

Did you know Miss Ludy Roberts? I did. I knew Dr. Grissom to make her lay her head on the floor and he would pull her hair. He would put two pegs in her mouth and pour water in till it ran out. If she made any noise he would job the pegs down her throat. There were two separate pegs. He would sometimes bruise and tear her mouth. Dr. Grissom told me to let him know if any patients spoke ill of himself or the matron.

Did you know Mrs. Tom Howell? Yes, she was one of my patients and was here during the summer of 1887. Dr. Grissom went into Mrs. Howell's room on one occasion and I heard a noise up in the sitting room and went to see what noise was going on there. When I came back he was sitting on the bed beside her and had his arm around her. Mrs. Howell jumped up and said: "Oh, Dr. Grissom tried to kiss me!" Dr. Grissom told her she knew he had not tried to kiss her. He told me afterwards in the dining-room to be sure not to say anything about it.

How old were you when you came to the asylum? I was 17 years yld. How did Dr. Grissom treat you? He used to send for me as if he wanted to see me on business, and would tell me I was pretty and he would like to kiss me. I did not allow him to do it, but went back to my ward. I went to the Wake Forest anniversary in 1887. When I came back I had the headache and Dr. Grissom gave me a bottle of cologne. Dr. Grissom told me I needn't get up the next morning if I didn't feel like it. I was sick in bed next morning, and Dr. Rogers came to see me. Dr. Grissom came in after Dr. Rogers had gone out. He came up and sat on the bed and said he was sorry I was sick. He asked to feel of my pulse and took hold of my arm. He said he would like to kiss me and I told him he better not try it. I told him I thought he was joking at first. He asked me if I wouldn't be his and run away with him. I told him I wouldn't and that I thought he was a rascal for asking me such a question. He told me that I must kiss him, and said if I would comply with his wishes he would make me matron of the institution. I told him if he didn't leave the room I would call for help. He said that nobody would help me, that I had no friends here. I told him that I would write to my father and he said no letters should go away while I was sick. I got up on the next morning. Dr. Fuller and Dr. Rogers told me that I ought not to be up. I told them that I was afraid to stay in bed. Did not give them my reasons. When I saw Dr. Grissom he told me he did not mean anything by what he had said to me and he hoped I would stay at the asylum. I agreed to remain. That was in February 1887.

"Did Dr. Grissom make any other advances to you?" Yes, one night as I was coming down from the asylum dance I met him at the foot of the stairs and he caught me and held me. He heard some one and let me go and said he was just joking with me. When he caught me I cried out. I said something, I don't know whit it was.

I left here March 19th, 1888. Shortly before that he came through to prescribe for a patient. When he came into the ward he said, "Miss Ella let's go into your room to get your report." We went in and he locked the door saying he wanted to keep the patients out. I sat down upon the bed and he sat upon a chair. He tried to kiss me and I got up and went out.

When I left I was not discharged. I went home in response to a telegram that my mother was very sick. When I went into the office to ask him to telephone for a carriage he locked the door and said that I would have to be his yet. I told him that I was going and would never return again. When I got home I found my mother dead. The next day I wrote Dr. Grissom that I would not return. I got a letter from him in reply.

At this point Col. Fuller asked if she had Dr. Grissom's letter. Mr. Whitaker said he had it and produced it, handing it to Miss Edwards. She was asked to read it. She requested Mr. Whitaker to read it and he did so. It was as follows:

RALEIGH, N. C., March 21, 1888.

MISS ELLA:—I wrote your father yesterday sending your wages and 15 days in advance, and stating that owing to your mother's sickness you need not return at present. I have filled your place.

Respectfully

EUGENE GRISSOM.

Please sign receipt, etc.

Did you tell your father of Dr. Grissom's treatment? I did not. Why did you not tell him? Because I did not want his hands stained with blood. I knew what would be the conseq ences if I told him.

TESTIMONY OF MR. WEST.

Mr. Jas. S. West was then sworn and took the stand and was examined by Mr. Whitaker. He said he had been engaged as engineer of the asylum for eleven years. Was asked how many turkeys had been raised per year at the asylum for five years past. He said about seventy-five. The patients got about one-fourth of them. The other three-fourths were carried to town, he did not know by whom. He had also seen about three-fourths of the cellery raised at the asylum yearly sent away. A niece and cousin of the matron of the asylam had spent some time at the asylum. Mrs. Lawrance, the matron, had from time to time had company at the asylum. They took their meals in the steward's dining room. He had seen Dr. Grissom and Miss Burch together in Mrs. Lawrence's sitting room. It was in October 1888. He saw Miss Burch cross the hall and go into the room. Three minutes later Dr. Grissom came up the steps and and went in. They closed the door. They were in the room for several minutes. Miss Burch came out first and then Dr. Grissom. He did not think there was anybody else there. Mrs. Lawrence was away from the institution. He saw Miss Burch go into the room again in December and Dr. Grissom followed her closing the door. Mrs. Lawrence was away this time also.

He had never seen Dr. Grissom give away anything. He had seen whiskey sent away from the drug store by Dr. Grissom's orders.

Col. Fuller then took the witness on cross examination. Mr. West said the turkeys spoken of were raised on the grounds and belonged to the institution. He raised turkeys himself but did not know of anybody else who raised any.

Miss Mary Moss and Miss Pleasants were the relations of Mrs. Lawrence who visited at the asylum. The first time he spoke about the turkey matter was to Mr. Thompson. He did not have the matter in charge, but saw it. He saw Dr. Grissom and Miss Burch go into the matron's room. Asked if he did not know that it was the duty of Miss Burch to act as matron in the absence of Mrs. Lawrence He said he didn't know whether she had any business in that room or not. Anybody who had business with the matron had accession to that room.

He was never charged for raising turkeys at the asylum. He had never entertained any company at the asylum. He had seen the other officers have company here at times. He had seen Dr. Rogers' brother here. He did not know how long. He had himself partaken of the hospitality of Dr. Grissom five or six years ago. He had occupied a sleeping apartment here. The matron's sitting room was used for company. He did not go to see whether the door was locked or not. He had been in the drug store and seen the liquor go out. It was taken away in bottles.

The testimony of the other witnesses virtually covered and substantiated the preferred charges as previously published in the OBSERVER.—ED.]

HAWKES CRYSTALIZED LENSES TRADE MARK

FROM THE CHRISTIAN ADVOCATE.

Mr. A. E. Hawkes has gained a national reputation as a practical optician, and his celebrated spectacles and spring eye-glasses are known throughout the United States. We are writing this article with a pair of his new crystalized lenses, and they seem to us as transparent as light itself; and with them the finest print is as clear as in youth.—Editor Christian Advocate.
